

ATTENTION ACTORS!!!
FILM AUDITION at GWC Theater Arts department!!!

OEDIPUS REX

By Sophocles

A Film Adaptation by Tom Amen and Tim Mueller
Directed by Tom Amen

Note: This film production will replace the fall production of HAMLET which has been rescheduled for March 2022.

Audition Dates and Times:
August 31 - Open Call 7-10 PM
Former KOCE Studio at GWC

September 1 - Invited Callback 7-10 PM
Former KOCE Studio at GWC

Rehearsal and Shoot Dates: Mid-September to Mid-November.

CHARACTERS/CAST BREAKDOWN:

This free adaptation has been conceived for a cast of 12 actors.
The complete cast/character breakdown is as follows:

OEDIPUS - King of Thebes
JOCASTE - Queen of Thebes
CREON - Brother of Jocaste
TIRESIAS - Blind Prophet
PRIEST - Wise Elder of Thebes
STRANGER - Citizen of Corinth
SHEPARD
MESSENGER
CHORUS of THREE THEBANS

Note: Ages for all roles are not specially indicated as stylized make-up and/or masks will be utilized.

AUDITION REQUIREMENTS:

All actors wishing to audition must prepare a 2-minute classical monologue. Actors who have previously prepared a Shakespearean monologue or soliloquy are encouraged to use that prepared piece.

NOTE: Actors without prepared audition pieces will not be auditioned. In addition, please read the play prior to audition. Though the production will employ a specific adaptation, an understanding of the play and its characters is crucial to a successful audition!

Thank you for your advanced preparation!

If cast in this production, all actors must enroll in a 2-unit college course. There is no pay for this production.

For further audition or production information, please contact Tom Amen at tamen@gwc.cccd.edu